

Michelle Scott

Michelle is the Business Manager of Roseville College, an Anglican day school for girls in Kindergarten to Year 12, on Sydney's North Shore. She has been in the role since 2010 and prior to that she was the school's Director of Community Relations and Development. The College has a student population of 970 girls and 150 staff. Michelle loves enable the education of so many girls and leading her operational team.

Michelle is a passionate and active member of ASBA and is the Immediate Past President of the ASBA (NSW) Chapter (which has over 300 members). She has previously been ASBA (NSW)'s President, Vice President and Chair of the PD Committee.

Michelle holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of New South Wales and is a Certified Practising Accountant.