

Sonja Matthes

Sonja is a highly motivated and experienced School Business Manager who makes a positive impact to the financial operations of the College. Within the College and Catholic Education environment Sonja is well respected by her peers. She has solid experience managing all levels of building development, maintenance and improvement projects and recurrent and capital budgeting. Sonja has been Business Manager of Emmanuel College since 2008 and has been involved in the education industry since 1999.

Currently Sonja is a member of the Catholic Education Office Western Australia Director's Business Manager Advisory Group, a Director of ASBA Ltd and President of ASBA (WA) Inc. In past years, Sonja has been a member of Educate Plus Executive, Chair of ASBA (WA) Inc State Conference, member of ASBA Ltd Professional Development Committee and ASBA Ltd National Conference Committee.

Sonja continues to study and is currently completing a Graduate Certificate in Catholic Leadership at University of Notre Dame Australia – Fremantle to add to her Diploma of Management and Bachelor of Commerce Major in Accounting.